

The Usurpers

In this discussion I will attempt to break down the history of the people of the Caucuses whom are better known as Jewish Israelites. In an earlier blog I arranged three groups that represented the current belief concerning the chosen people of the Hebrew Scriptures. I will begin the same manner. So if you remembered I created a table with three columns. Each column represents a group of people that claim to be the seed of Israel. By visualizing these groups we will be able to see which claim is fact and which claim is fiction. Here is the table as followed:

British Israelites	Jewish Israelites	Hebrew Israelites
Anglo Saxons or W.A.S.P They Embrace Yahweh/GOD They Embrace the Messiah. They Embrace the state of Israel They reject the chosen people of the Most High.	Zionists or Jews They embrace Yahweh/GOD They reject the Messiah They Embrace the state of Israel. They reject the chosen people of the Most High.	Negros / African Americans / Blacks. *They Embrace AHAYAH They Embrace the Messiah They Embrace land of Israel. They Embrace the chosen people of the Most High.

Like in the last discussion I spoke on the name of The Most High, but I would like to clarify one thing before I continue. There seems to be a lot of discussion around the name of The Most High. In the previous topic I use the name to clarify a distinct difference between the Hebrews, Jews and Saxons. For example in the Jewish faith the name is so holy that to speak it would be blasphemy. In the Saxons they speak their version like he is a tool for correction and the Hebrews speak as if the The Most High is a family member.

The Hebrew is constantly researching, comparing, arguing and striving to correctly pronounce the name of the creator. SO HOW COULD THIS BE VAIN. There is nothing empty about striving to know the name of your father. We in no way break the commandment by mispronouncing the name. Because being ignorance is not vanity. Being Ignorance is just part of the curses. All we are doing is trying to fulfilling the void that was taken from us during our captivity.

Okay now I just wanted to clarify that point.

So where do we begin? We successfully decimated the claimers of the Anglo Saxons as the so called British Israelites in or last study. Today we will do the same with the other usurpers known as Ashkenazim Jews. Let us begin by laying out a few names to cross reference using Historians, authors and scriptures. These names are different titles of the people of the Caucus. And they are as followed.

Different names of the so called Jew	Reference books

So let's start with the name Ashkenazim according to Wikipedia:

The theory that the majority of Ashkenazic Jews are the descendants of the non-Semitic converted Khazars was advocated by various racial theorists and anti-Semitic sources in the 20th century, especially following the publication of Arthur Koestler's The Thirteenth Tribe. Despite recent genetic evidence to the contrary, and a lack of any real mainstream scholarly support, this belief is still popular among groups such as the Christian Identity Movement, Black Hebrews, British Israelites and others (particularly Arabs who claim that they, rather than Jews, are the true descendants of the Israelites, or who seek to downplay the connection between Ashkenazi Jews and Israel in favour of their own.

(This basically means everyone knows they are lying.)

So here is Wikipedia:

Ashkenazi Jews, also known as Ashkenazic Jews or Ashkenazim, singular: also, Yehudei Ashkenaz, "the Jews of Ashkenaz"), are the Jews descended from the medieval Jewish communities along the Rhine in Germany from Alsace in the south to the Rhineland in the north. Ashkenazi is the medieval Hebrew name for this region and thus for Germany. Thus, Ashkenazim or Ashkenazi Jews are literally "German Jews. Later, Jews from Western and Central Europe came to be called "Ashkenazi" because the main centres of Jewish learning were located in Germany. (See Usage of the name for the term's etymology.) Ashkenazi is also a Japhetic patriarch in the Table of Nations (Genesis 10).

So what does Genesis 10 say?

Gen 10 verses 1- 5 as it read in the Torah:

“Now these are the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth: and unto them were sons born after the flood. The sons of Japheth; Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras. And the sons of Gomer; Ashkenazi, and Riphath, and Togarmah. And the sons of Javan; Elishah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim. By these were the isles of the Gentiles divided in their lands; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations”

Now this discussion should end here, because it states in the torah which is their holy book that they are Japhetic and not Semitic, but we are not dealing with truth we are dealing with deception. So we need to bring this home.

Let's reference Wikipedia:

“Many Ashkenazi Jews later migrated, largely eastward, forming communities in non German-speaking areas, including Hungary, Poland, Belarus, Lithuania, Russia, Ukraine, Eastern Europe, and elsewhere between the 11th and 19th centuries. With them, they took and diversified Yiddish, a basically Germanic language with Hebrew influence (see Jewish language). It had developed in medieval times as the lingua franca among Ashkenazi Jews. The Jewish communities of three cities along the Rhine: Speyer, Worms and Mainz, created the SHUM league (SHUM after the first Hebrew letters of Spira, Warmatia and Magentza). The SHUM-cities are considered the cradle of the distinct Ashkenazi culture and liturgy.”

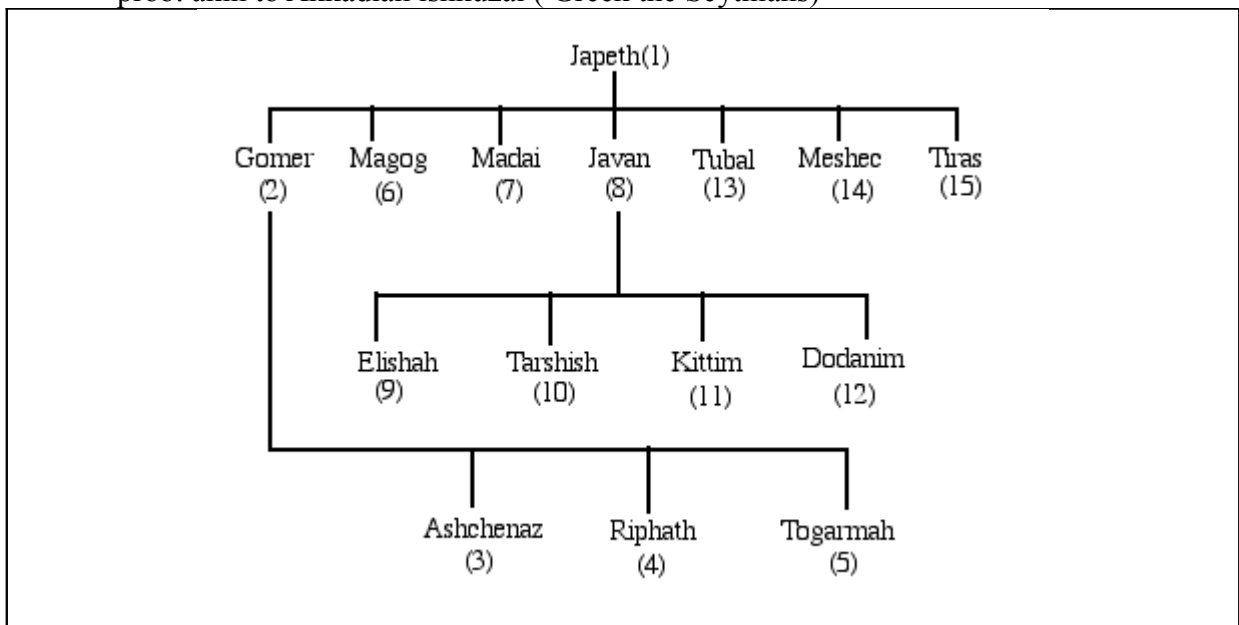

“Although in the 11th century, they comprised only 3 percent of the world's Jewish population, at their peak in 1931, Ashkenazi Jews accounted for 92 percent of the world's Jews. Today they make up approximately 80 percent of Jews worldwide.[5] Most Jewish communities with extended histories in Europe are Ashkenazim, with the exception of those associated with the Mediterranean region. The majority of the Jews who migrated from Europe to other continents in the past two centuries are Ashkenazim, Eastern Ashkenazim in particular. This is especially true in the United States, where most of the 5.3 million American Jewish populations [6] is Ashkenazi, representing the world's single largest concentration of Ashkenazim.”

Noun PL - Ashkenazi

1. a member of the group of Jews that, after the Diaspora, settled in central, northern, and, later, eastern Europe and developed Yiddish as their spoken language
2. a descendant of this group

Origin: Jap, a German Jew; earlier, a German, after Ashkenazi, name of an ancient kingdom (see Jer. 51:27), after Ashkenazi, second son of Gomer (see Gen. 10:3); prob. akin to Akkadian ishkuza (Greek the Scythians)

Taken from Bill Cooper’s book after the flood:

“Ashkenazi: The descendants of Ashchenaz first settled in what is today Armenia, although in later Jewish writings he was associated (with his father Gomer) with the Germanic races. Hence, Germanic Jews are still known as Ashkenazim. More immediately, the Assyrians tell us in their inscriptions of the Askuzu, a tribe who allied themselves with the Mannai in a revolt of the 7th century BC, an event that is also mentioned in the Old Testament (Jeremiah 51:27). Indeed, it is in this statement that Jeremiah incidentally confirms the identity of the Ashkenazim with the Askuzu. This name, the Askuzu of the Assyrian records, later became the Skythai (Scythians) of Herodotus. Other early sources confirm their place of settlement to be the area later known as Pontus and Bythinia, where the peoples of Ashchenaz gave their name to the lake and harbour of Ascanius, and to the land of Ascania. Josephus tells us that they were subsequently known to the Greeks as the Reginians (see Map 1). (Refs: 1DB 1:254. NBD 96. JA 1.vi.1. P 1:26)”

So after reading thru just a few paragraphs and seeing the Table of nations ask yourself how can anyone still believe these people are the Hebrew Israelites?

Now here is a question.

Remember in the book of Deuteronomy 28 when it spoke of the curses that would befall on the children of Israel if they did not follow the laws of Moses?

Let me refresh your memory:

Deu 28:43 The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt come down very low.

In reading this verse you can see that they do not match this verse at all, because first you have to ask. Where is there land? And you say "it's Israel" okay then who in this country is very high and who is very low? (Ask this question to the Palestinian and you will find your answer.)

Deu 28:44 He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him: he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail.

Here is another one which is quite obvious. Have you ever heard of the word Jewish banker? In America which has 5.3 million so called cursed Israelites how many of them are taking loans from the African American population? (Think about it!)

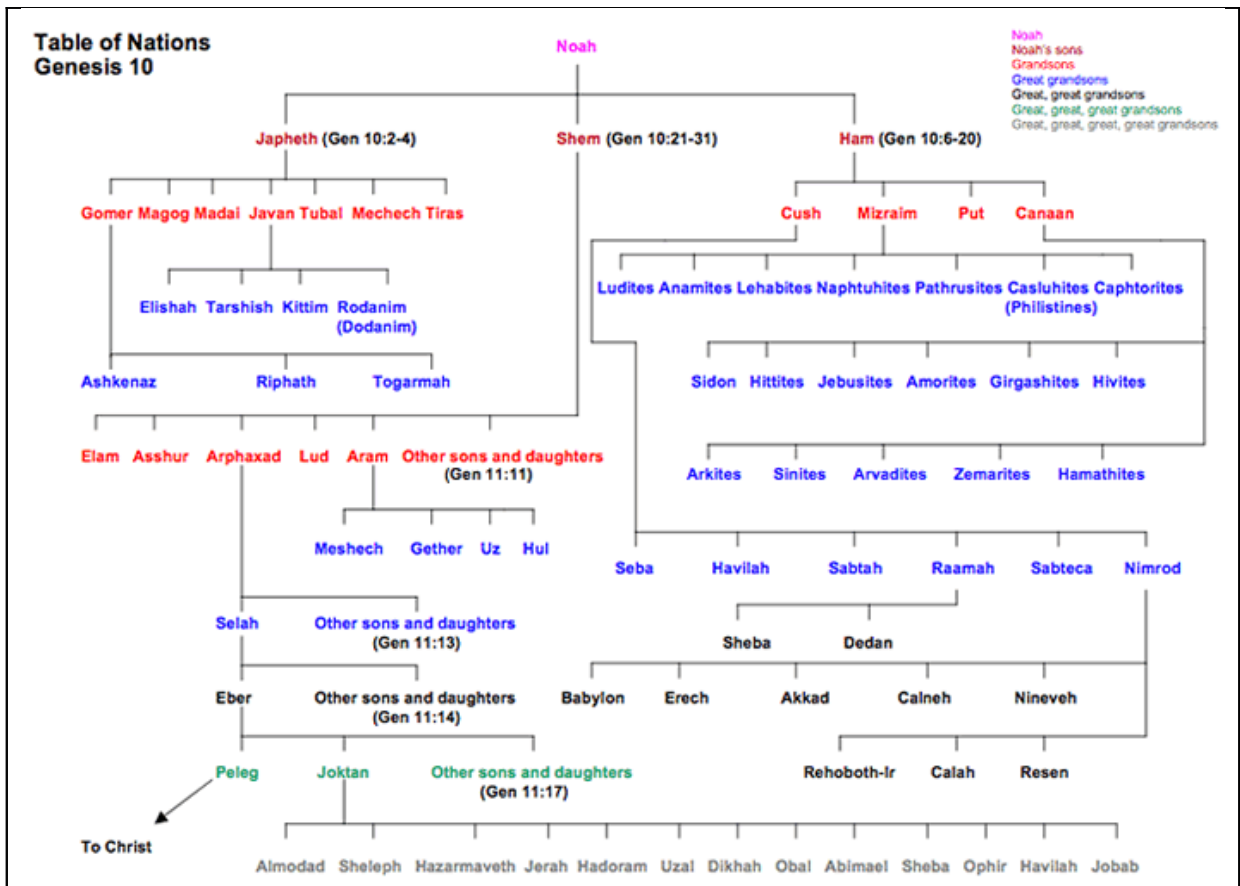

Deu 28:45 Moreover all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, till thou be destroyed; because thou hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee: (So where are the curses?)

Deu 28:46 And they shall be upon thee for a sign and for a wonder, and upon thy seed for ever

SO HOW LONG IS FOR EVER 1948?

Before we continue let's do a little deprogramming below is a map from Josephus the Hebrew historian. It gives a visual presentation of the nations of Noah. Take a long look at this information.

Notice the names that are under Ham, Shem and Japheth. How long do you think this information was available? Who has the power to change laws and suppress education? Can you see that you have been deceived? If not then keep on listening because there is a lot more to come.

Before we begin let us take a look at the word JEW?

So what is a JEW according to Wikipedia?

The Jews (Hebrew: "Yehudim"), also known as the Jewish people, are a nation and ethno religious group originating in the Israelites or Hebrews of the Ancient Near East. The Jewish ethnicity, nationality, and religion are strongly interrelated, as Judaism is the traditional faith of the Jewish nation. Converts to Judaism, whose status as Jews within the Jewish ethnos is equal to those born into it, have been absorbed into the Jewish people throughout the millennia.

(So what is this CONVERSION?)

Usurpation Alert!!!

In Jewish tradition, Jewish ancestry is traced to the Biblical patriarchs Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the second millennium BCE. The Jews have experienced three periods of political autonomy in their national homeland, the Land of Israel, twice during ancient history, and currently once again, since 1948, with the establishment of the modern State of Israel. The first of the two ancient eras spanned from 1350[9] to 586 BCE, and encompassed the periods of the Judges, the United Monarchy, and the Divided Monarchy of the Kingdoms of Israel and Judah, ending with the destruction of the First Temple. The second era was the period of the Hasmonean Kingdom spanning from 140 to 37 BCE. Since the destruction of the First Temple, the Diaspora has been the home of most of the world's Jews.[10] Except in the modern State of Israel, Jews are a minority in every country in which they live, and they have frequently experienced persecution throughout history, resulting in a population that fluctuated both in numbers and distribution over the centuries.

Now if the Ashkenazi is not Hebrew or Israelite then how could this explanation be correct? I guess we have to look at the word conversion for this to hold any water so let's look at the conversion process.

And it reads according to Wikipedia:

Conversion to Judaism (Hebrew: גִּיּוּר, giyur) is a formal act undertaken by a non-Jewish person who wishes to be recognised as a full member of the Jewish community. A Jewish conversion is both a religious act and an expression of association with the Jewish people. A formal conversion is also sometimes undertaken to remove any doubt as to the Jewishness of a person who wishes to be considered a Jew.

The procedure for conversion depends on the sponsoring denomination, and depends on meeting the ritual and other requirements for a conversion of that denomination. A conversion in accordance with the process of a denomination is not a guarantee of recognition by another denomination.

It is not necessary for a person to formally convert to Judaism in order to adopt any or all beliefs and practices of Judaism. In Judaism, such people are referred to as righteous gentiles (see, for example the character of Job). There are various groups that have adopted Jewish customs and practices. For example, in Russia, the Subbotniks have adopted most aspects of Judaism without formal conversion to Judaism.

So the question is, is this a cult, a religion, a secret club, what is it? So I have to go thru rituals, I have to be sponsored thru a certain denomination and who knows I still could be rejected.

But does this really make me a JEW?

And if I did get accepted and say I was a Chinese man from China then I become a Jew I could no longer use the words Anti Semitic correct? So this word Jew has a lot of explaining to do.

So what does the word Jew really mean and where did it come from?

Let's take a look back in history in the land of Judea:

"Judea and Galilee were two separate states and political entities, as illustrated on the map of Palestine in the time of our Saviour in your Bible. Yahushua Himself was not a Jew (Judean) or resident of Judea, He was a Galilean or resident of Galilee (Matthew 26:69; John 7:41), and a Judahite or descendent of the Tribe of Judah. The Judeans of prominence were not of the Tribe of Judah, but of Edomites. Pilate was being ironic when he wrote the sign "Yahushua of Nazareth, King of the Judeans" for the Cross (John 19:19). That is, "the Galilean who was King of the Judeans," as in "Queen Victoria of England, Empress of India." Yahushua grew up in Nazareth in Galilee. His disciples were fishermen from the Sea of Galilee. And although He visited Jerusalem, he spent most of His life in his home country of Galilee. John 7:1, "After this Yahushua stayed in Galilee; for He could not walk in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill him." His followers were constrained "for fear of the Jews" (John 7:13, 19:38, and 20:19)

So you can see that there is a distinction between Judahite of the tribe of Judah and a Jew of the town of Judea. What sounds accurate to you?

Christ demonstrated a very real antipathy towards the people called Jews, in Bibles published after about 1776, but who would be more accurately described as Judeans, or residents of the Edomite-dominated territory of Judea. Jesus said to the Jews "You do not believe because you are not of My sheep" (John 10:24-27). "I was only sent to the lost sheep of the House of Israel" (Matthew 15:24). In fact, Christ referred to "those Jews (or residents of Judea regardless of religion, race or color) who believed on him," as "of their father the devil" for although they were children of Abraham, they were not children of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and heirs of the blessing of Abraham, nor did they have the faith of Abraham, and were in all probability descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Esau (John 8: 31, 44). In contrast, Yahushua instructed His disciples - who were from Galilee of the Gentiles, not Judea (Acts 1:11; 2:7) - to pray to <Father>and in Revelation 2:9 and 3:9, Yahushua speaks of "those who say they are Jews and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan".

By the time of Yahushua the word Edom or Edomite had been translated by Greek and Latin into Ioudaios and Iudaeus meaning a Judean or person living in Judea. The original King James Version of the Bible, 1611, translated Idumaeen-Judean into Iewes. It wasn't until the revised editions of the King James Bible, that the word Jew appeared. The word Jew does not mean Israel or Israelite! We must conclude therefore that the first "Jews" were Canaanite-Edomite-Hittite. It is certain, according to the Bible, that Jews are not Israel.

Now do not let this slip by you my friends and enemies. Let's repeat that last sentence" The word Jew does not mean Israel or Israelite! We must conclude therefore that the first "Jews" were Canaanite-Edomite-Hittite." Houston we have a problem!

Below is a chart that I created, so that you can visualize the correct distinction between the nations of the book. I will explain in detail.

Hebrew Israelite- H.O.Judah	Hebrew Israelite – H.O.Israel	Hebrews Ishmaelite

Here is a list of the characteristics of the modern Jews of today.

This is based on the number of Jews in the world. Total population 13.155.000

As you can see the Mizrahi Jews are the closest to the Hebrews do to Ishmael and Esau they are also of the line of Elam so they are of Shem thru this line as well. So this might explain why they get so much hell in the so called Middle East.

Here are a few quotes that I found on a website called I AM Witness.com

Jewish Almanac (1980)

"Strictly speaking it is incorrect to call an ancient Israelite a 'Jew' or to call a contemporary Jew an Israelite or a Hebrew."

Encyclopedia Americana (1985)

"Khazar, an ancient Turkic speaking people who ruled a large and powerful state in the steppes North of the Caucasus Mountains from the 7th century to their demise in the mid 11th century A.D... In the 8th Century it's political and religious head... as well as the greater part of the Khazar nobility, abandoned paganism and converted to Judaism (The Khazars are believed to be the ancestors of most Russian and Eastern European Jews)."

Encyclopedia Britannica (15th edition)

"Khazars, confederation of Turkic and Iranian tribes that established a major commercial empire in the second half of the 6th century, covering the southeastern section of modern European Russia... In the middle of the 8th century the ruling classes adopted Judaism as their religion."

Academic American Encyclopedia (1985)

"Ashkenazim, the Ashkenazim are one of the two major divisions of the Jews, the other being the Sephardim."

Encyclopedia Americana (1985)

"Ashkenazim, the Ashkenazim are the Jews whose ancestors lived in German lands...it was among Ashkenazi Jews that the idea of political Zionism emerged, leading ultimately to the establishment of the state of Israel... In the late 1960s, Ashkenazi Jews numbered some 11 million, about 84 percent of the world Jewish population."

The Jewish Encyclopedia:

"Khazars, a non-Semitic, Asiatic, Mongolian tribal nation who emigrated into Eastern Europe about the first century, who were converted as an entire nation to Judaism in the seventh century by the expanding Russian nation which absorbed the entire Khazar population, and who account for the presence in Eastern Europe of the great numbers of Yiddish-speaking Jews in Russia, Poland, Lithuania, Galatia, Bessarabia and Rumania."

The Universal Jewish Encyclopedia:

"The primary meaning of Ashkenazi and Ashkenazim in Hebrew is Germany and Germans. This may be due to the fact that the home of the ancient ancestors of the Germans is Media, which is the Biblical Ashkenazi... Krauss is of the opinion that in the early medieval ages the Khazars was sometimes referred to as Ashkenazim... About 92 percent of all Jews or approximately 14,500,000 are Ashkenazim."

Take 5 min break play Hebrew are waking up!

Now after looking at these charts and hearing these quotes can you say without a reasonable doubt that the JEWS are the Hebrews of the bible? If there is doubt then there claims are not conclusive. Therefore we must look somewhere else for the answers.

NOTE:

Now for fun was going to add British Israelites to the list but I did not want to waste any more time on those usurpers. If you haven't you can listen to my previous study called "The Usurpers and the power behind white supremacy".

So let's start with a bit of History how did the so called Jews get a grip on Judea and how did they usurp the Hebrew Israelites? Now we know from listing to the words from Deuteronomy 28 that there would be a time when this would occur.

But before we begin I want you to understand something.

When the Jews say they are Jews they are not laying, because they are! The problem is we do not understand what they mean, because we do not understand history. Therefore we do not understand the history behind this word JEW. Once you learn how to separate the word JEW and the people whom call themselves Jewish from the people whom call themselves Hebrew Israelites then you will begin to have a deeper knowledge behind the meaning of word.

Remember Lucifer rules this word thru sorcery.

So to begin we have to understand who is this guy called Esau and what is an Edomite?

"According to the Book of Genesis of the Hebrew Bible, Esau was the fraternal twin brother of Jacob (whom God renamed Israel)—the patriarch and founder of the Israelites. Esau and Jacob were the sons of Isaac and Rebekah, and the grandsons of Abraham and Sarah. Esau was born first and when Jacob was born, he held onto Esau's heel (Genesis 25:26). Isaac was sixty years old when they were born, but Rebekah is believed to have been much younger. Abraham was still alive at that time, though he would have been 160 years old by that stage, and would live another fifteen years."

"As the first born, Esau was entitled to inherit the wealth of his father Isaac after his death. However, he sold his birthright to Jacob in exchange for a "mess of pottage" (meal of lentils) (Genesis 25:29–34). According to the Talmud, the sale of the birthright took place immediately after Abraham died. The Talmudic dating would give both Esau and Jacob an age of 15 at the time."

"Esau's name in Hebrew means "hairy", and, according to Genesis 25:25, it is a reference to his hairiness at birth. He is also called "Edom", which means red. Genesis relates this directly to his selling his birthright for some "red lentil stew" (Genesis 25:30), and the book also makes a point of mentioning that he was red when he emerged from the womb (Gen 25:25). The land which was inhabited by his descendants, Edom, contains a great abundance of red rock."

Here are a few characteristics of the EDMITES (taken from the World Wide Web)

"The Land of Edom is located between the northern section of the Gulf of Aqaba and the southern shore of The Dead Sea. Measuring approximately 100 miles (160 kilometres) long and 50 miles (80 kilometres) wide, it is named after Esau, the son of Isaac and Rebecca, who was the very slightly older fraternal-twin brother of Jacob / Israel (Genesis 25:23-26)."

"The capital of Edom was Bozrah (Isaiah 63:1). The earlier inhabitants of the land were Horites, but they were driven out by the Edomites (Deuteronomy 2:12). Edomite tribes settled also in the south of Judah, like the Kenizzites (Genesis 36:11), to whom Caleb and Othniel descended (Joshua 15:17). Although the Edomites were closely related in blood and in language to the Israelites, they were at times in a state of war with the neighbouring Kings of Israel and Judah (2 Kings 8:20, 2 Chronicles 28:17)."

"The Edomites refused a request by Moses for the Israelites to simply pass directly through Edomite territory on their way north (Numbers 20:14-21)."

"Genesis 36, which records the family tree of Esau, lists many names still associated with the land of Edom in Southern Jordan, and also mentions individuals whose unfavourable interactions with the people of Israel are recorded for us elsewhere as the Old Testament unfolds."

Play Audio File: "Now these are the generations of Esau"

Here is a 5 minute reading of the book of (Genesis 36) play close attention to the dukes which are Kings. The reason why I am playing these readings is to take your mind to a place where the deception took place. In order to do this justice we must first understand who the edomites are and what are their characteristics so here is another recording called the dukes of Edom. I advise you to read the book of Chronicles to get an overview of the genealogy of the people of the book it will help with your deprogramming process.

Play Audio File: (The Dukes of Edom)

Here is a 1 minute reading of 1 Chronicles 1:43-54 these are the dukes of Edom

"1Ch 1:43 Now these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the children of Israel; Bela the son of Beor: and the name of his city was Dinhabah.

1Ch 1:44 And when Bela was dead, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead.

1Ch 1:45 And when Jobab was dead, Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his stead.

1Ch 1:46 And when Husham was dead, Hadad the son of Bedad, which smote Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Avith.

1Ch 1:47 And when Hadad was dead, Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his stead.

1Ch 1:48 And when Samlah was dead, Shaul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his stead.

1Ch 1:49 And when Shaul was dead, Baalhanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead.

1Ch 1:50 And when Baalhanan was dead, Hadad reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Pai; and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

1Ch 1:51 Hadad died also. And the dukes of Edom were; duke Timnah, duke Aliah, duke Jetheth, 1Ch 1:52 Duke Aholibamah, duke Elah, duke Pinon,

1Ch 1:53 Duke Kenaz, duke Teman, duke Mibzar,

1Ch 1:54 Duke Magdiel, duke Iram. These are the dukes of Edom.”

Okay now I am going to read a few verses from Numbers 20 14 – 22 this is where the Edomites deny the Hebrew Israelites Passage through Their Land during the Exodus out of Egypt.

Numbers 20 14 – 21 and it reads:

“Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, "Thus says your brother Israel: You know all the adversity that has befallen us: how our fathers went down to Egypt, and we dwelt in Egypt a long time; and the Egyptians dealt harshly with us and our fathers; and when we cried to the LORD, he heard our voice, and sent an angel and brought us forth out of Egypt; and here we are in Kadesh, a city on the edge of your territory. Now let us pass through your land. We will not pass through field or vineyard, neither will we drink water from a well; we will go along the King's Highway, we will not turn aside to the right hand or to the left, until we have passed through your territory." But Edom said to him, "You shall not pass through, lest I come out with the sword against you." And the people of Israel said to him, "We will go up by the highway; and if we drink of your water, I and my cattle, then I will pay for it; let me only pass through on foot, nothing more." But he said, "You shall not pass through." And Edom came out against them with many men, and with a strong force. Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his territory; so Israel turned away from him.”

So the reason why I played these two audio files and read the book of Genesis is to take your mind k to the beginning of these two events. Now first you listened to the history of the Kings of Edom. And then you heard how they still had hatred for their brothers the Israelites, this vital information for your understanding of the future events.

Okay in order to understand when the migration of the Hebrews began we have to look at the fall of first temple of Jerusalem:

Babylonia Exile:

“According to the history recorded in the Hebrew bible, there were three deportations of Jews to Babylon, the first in 597 BCE involving king Jeconiah and his court and many others, a second in 587 BCE of the next king, Zedekiah, and the rest of the people, and a final deportation at an unspecified time after this (possibly 582 BCE) following the assassination of Gedaliah, the Babylonian governor. The exile ended in 538 BCE with the fall of Babylon to the Persian king Cyrus the Great, who gave the Jews permission to return to Yehud province and rebuild the Temple.

The captivity and subsequent return to the Land of Israel and the rebuilding of the Second Temple in the Jerusalem are pivotal events in the Jewish history and Judaism, and had a far-reaching impact on the development of Jewish culture and practices.”

Play Audio File: Jeremiah 39 Verses 1 – 18

Now do to time I can play all of the audio files that will give a complete account about what took place, but I can advise you to read the book of Jeremiah it speaks about the fall of the Full house of Israel and also about the fall of Babylon. So once you go thru the book you will get a better understanding of the events that lead to the migration and captivity.

Here is one more Audio file that explain how the people of Sumerian where placed into the land of Israel you will hear how they brought all their religion and how they began to pollute the temple and the land.

Play Audio File: Now here is an audio of event from II Kings 17 24 – 41

I found this statement from the web concerning the Usurpers:

“These men were Jews, not because they were Israelites or Hebrews, or because they followed the Law, but because they dwelt in Judea, or Idumea as it was known, because most of the population were Idumeans or Edomites. These Pharisees, not daring to challenge Yahushua with the Scripture, determined to denigrate His own natural and Spiritual lineage by calling Yahushua a demon-possessed Samaritan. A Samaritan, strictly speaking, would be an inhabitant of the city of Samaria, but in Yahushua's time the term applied to all residents of the Northern kingdom. After the final captivity of Israel in 721BC by Shalmanesar, the cities of Samaria were wholly depopulated. They remained in this state until, in the Words of II Kings 17:24, "the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, Cuthah and Ava (in Assyria), Hamath, and Sepharvaim (in Syria), and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof." These new Samaritans were Assyrians by birth or subjugation and were idolaters."

Now take notice to the name Sepharvaim and Samaritan. Samaritan can be Ashkenazi, Edomite, Sephardic or any other nation that is not of the Tribe of Israel.

Now why am I playing all of these audio files and reading these verses in the bible?

If you listened to my previous study on "The Usurpers and the power behind White Supremacy" you will notice that I mentioned that Esau was not a JEW. This statement is true because Esau was the father of the Edomites and it was the Edomites that became JEWS. The Edomites lived in the area of Mount Seir which was called Ideumea.

When King Nebuchadnezzar took the children of Israel into captivity he supplanted the land of Israel with the peoples of Samaria. The Samaritans are a group of people from different nations that were placed into the land of Judea. For example Sepharvaims, Cuthites, Scythians and other nations that were called the mingled peoples. In my next study I will go thru the history of how King Harrods became the King of the Jews. And explain how Israel and Ideuma became merged into one nation later to be called Judea.

So what this means that all the people that lived in this area became Jews. This is the birth of the Jewish doctrine not the Hebrew doctrine. When the Israelite were expelled from the land of Israel the Usurpers translated their language into Aramaic or what is known as Babylonian Hebrew. This is the birth of the Jewish Religion. The Hebrew Israelites did not practice a religion it was their heritage and they used rituals to remember the story of our history.

The people that live in the land of Israel hold no resemblance to the original Hebrews. They are not the same people. So yes they are Jews and Israelis, but they are not Hebrew Israelites. The Hebrew do not have a religion we have a living breathing prophetic history that cannot be contained in a book. It is alive and walking amongst you it is the name of The Most High it is the name of the promise Yahushua and it is his messengers and teachers know as the Hebrew Israelites.

Part Two:

Here is one very interesting thing to think about. At this time in history you can pinpoint the time when Egypt was usurped along with Israel. In the year 587 BC the temple was destroyed by King Nebuchadnezzar

As it reads:

"Zedekiah revolted against Babylon and entered into an alliance with Pharaoh Hophra of Egypt. Nebuchadnezzar returned, defeated the Egyptians, and again besieged Jerusalem. The city fell in 587. Nebuchadnezzar destroyed the city wall and the Temple, together with the houses of the most important citizens, and Zedekiah was blinded, and taken to Babylon, together with many others. Judah became a Babylonian province, called Yehud Medinata (Yehud being the Babylonian equivalent of the Hebrew Yehuda, or "Judah", and "medinata" the word for province), putting an end to the independent Kingdom of Judah. "

So this explains how this area became usurped.

Here is a description of the Twenty Fifth Dynasty of Egypt:

And it reads now beware white supremacy alert listen how they try to twist this simple explanation:

“The Twenty-Fifth Dynasty of Egypt, also known as the Nubian dynasty or Kushite Empire, was a line of rulers originating in the Kingdom of Kush. They reigned in part or all of Ancient Egypt from 760 BC to 656 BC. [1]. The dynasty began with Kashta's invasion of Upper Egypt and culminated in several years of war with the Assyrians that forced the Kushites back to their homeland. The twenty-first, twenty-second, twenty-third, twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth dynasties of Ancient Egypt are often combined under the group title, Third Intermediate Period.

Now reading this you would think that their homeland was some place far away, but where was their homeland?

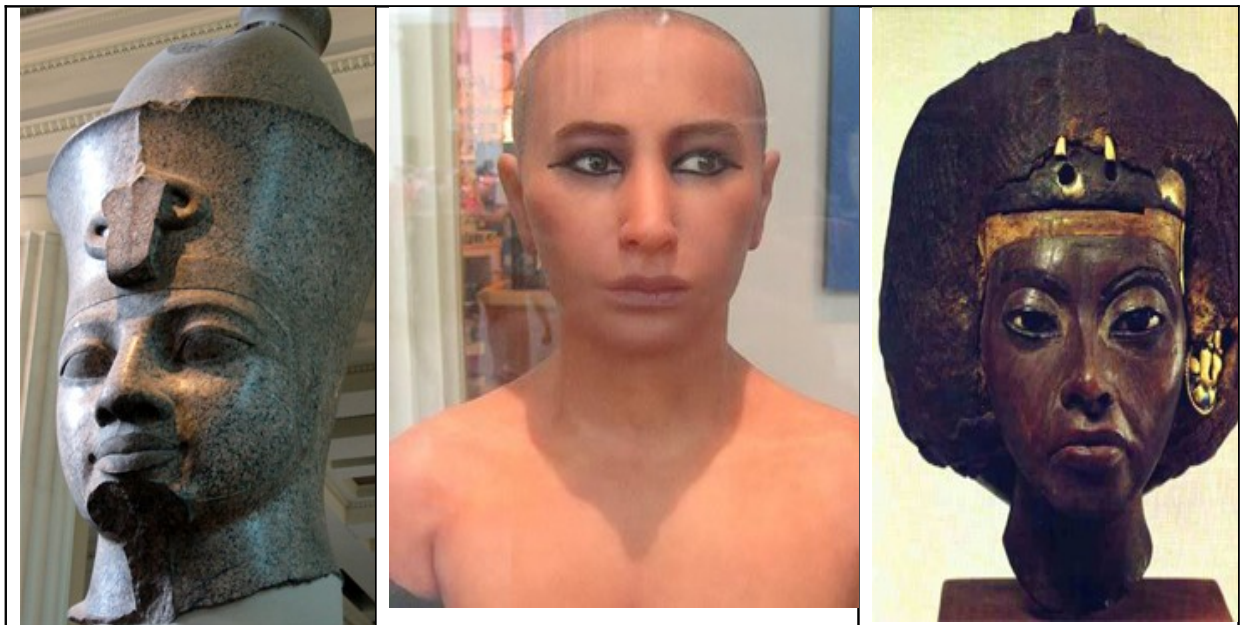

Now this is also from Wikipedia:

“Nubia is the region in the south of Egypt, along the Nile and in northern Sudan. Most of Nubia is situated in Sudan with about a quarter of its territory in Egypt. In ancient times it was an independent kingdom. “

Notice how they damaged the nose on the one to the right it is almost as if they tried to hind the fact that he was black.

But this is nothing new notice how in recent years as late as the year 2005 King Tut is being displayed as a Caucasian fellow with an African Skull. With highly skilled forensic experts and the national geographic to back it up take a look at the images and judge for yourself.

Now what you are seeing in from left to right starting from the top King Akhenaten father, King Tutankhamen as a boy, his mother Nefertiti, his grandfather Amenhotep III, the new King Tut and his great grandmother Queen Tiye. As you can see white supremacy is alive and well into the 21st century. Now listen to this quote “Tutankhamen was not black, and the portrayal of ancient Egyptian civilisation as black has no element of truth to it”. Zahi Hawass - Supreme Council of Antiquities

Now pay close attention to that “Supreme. Remember the meaning?

Okay now the reason why I am showing you all of these images is to make a point. The Supreme Council of Antiquities is a perfect example of White Supremacy. Anyone with eyes and a brain can see that ancient Egypt was a black African culture. So the question is why are they so desperate to hold onto these lies? And how does this coincide with the Hebrew Israelite?

To answer the first question: They are desperate because if they let the Egyptian lie go then they have to admit that the Hebrew and the Egyptian where both of African decent. And to answers the second question: They coincide by both being found in prophecy concerning the curses.

And it reads:

Here is the Audio: Ezekiel 30

Okay after hearing this now you understand why we hear a lot of talk about the so called Negroes in America saying they are Egyptian. Egypt went into captivity as well the children of Ham and Shem were sold during the Trans Atlantic slave trade. This is the history our education system will not tell you.

Now let's finish with the book of Maccabaeus and see how all this confusion began. In order to do this justice we have to lay a little ground work. Here are a few key names that we will be discussing.

What are the Hasmonean?

Who is Judas Maccabeus?

Who is John Hyrcanus?

So who is King Herod?

So how is Cleopatra VIII?

So how does this tie into the Jews of today and the Deception of the Hebrew Israelites?

BC and it was at the time Alexander the great was supplanting all of the lands of Asia Minor. And it explains how Egypt turned from black to white. Now if the Hebrews looked like the Egyptian or the Ethiopians then they also must have been supplanted as well. Because the people in these lands look nothing like their forefathers.

Here is an example in history we read that the last Egyptian Kingdom before the Ptolemaic Kingdom was the

The Third Intermediate Period refers to the time in Ancient Egypt from the death of Pharaoh Ramesses XI in 1070 BC to the foundation of the Twenty-Sixth Dynasty by Psamtik I in 664 BC, following the expulsion of the Nubian rulers of the Twenty-Fifth Dynasty.

Explain then go to the book of Maccabee and explain Egypt usurpation and Israelis by the Greeks and Romans.

The destruction of the Persian Empire: 333 - 330 BC

Within a mere eighteen months Alexander has cleared the Persians out of Anatolia, which they have held for two centuries. The conqueror now moves south along the coast through present-day Syria, Lebanon and Israel. The ports here are the home bases of the Persian fleet in the Mediterranean. By occupying them he intends to cripple the fleet and deprive it of contact with the cities of the empire, including Persepolis. Most of the Phoenician towns open their gates to him. The exception is the greatest of them all, Tyre, which he besieges for seven months (see the Siege of Tyre).
